VOLUME 12. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, MONDAY, FEB. 13, 1922. NO. 214

PIERCE SUGGESTED FOR NATIONAL JOB

WOULD MAKE MARYVILLE MAN ASSISTANT P. M. GENERAL.

TWO PLACES ARE OPEN

One Assistant Has Died and Another Slated to Take Place of William R. Hays.

The name of W. C. Pierce of this city has been prominently mentioned by his friends in Missouri for an assistant postmaster general either to succeed Hubert Work, who is now first assistant postmaster general and slated to become postmaster general to succeed Will R. Hays, or Edward Shaughnessey, the second assistant postmaster general, who recently died from injuries received in the Knickerbocker theater disaster in Washington.

Mr. Pierce has flatly turned down all offers of political appointments which will take him away from Maryville. His name is also frequently mentioned as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate. But so far has refused to give it any consideration. Mr. Pierce was finally urged to accept appointment as a member of the board having charge of the eleemosynary institutions of the state at the request of Governor Hyde This work takes him away from Maryville only a few days.

It was said in Republican circles that a Missouri Republican will get one of the assistant postmaster generalships.

SHRINE CIRCUS OPENS IN ST. JOSEPH WEDNESDAY

Has Met With Success in Other Cities Many to Attend From Here

Those who visit the Shrine circus which opens at the Auditorium in St. Joseph Wednesday to continue for ten days, will be given a treat worth going a long way to see. The circus which will be presented has enjoyed wonderful success in other cities and capacity crowds have witnessed the performances. In San Francisco, where the circus was recently staged by the Shriners of that city, 35,000 persons attended on the closing night and thousands of others had to be turned away. Aerial, tumbling and bar acts constitute the program. No show will be presented Sunday.

The doors of the Auditorium will be opened at 7 o'clock each evening, and the performance will begin an hour later. There will be dancing from 10:30 until midnight. The proceeds will go to a fund for the expenses of the St. Joseph Shrine delegates and uniform teams to the imperial council at San Francisco this year.

Several Shriners as well as others from Maryville will attend the circus.

QUITMAN HIGH SCHOOL PLACED ON APPROVED LIST

$1,800 Have Been Spent During the Past Year for Improvements—Has First-Class Rating.

The Quitman High School has been placed on the approved list of the first-class high schools of the state, according to a letter received Saturday by Superintendent W. A. Power from S. A. Baker, state superintendent of schools.

The Quitman school not being on the first-class approved list and the pupils graduated have had to take a special examination before being able to enter the State Teachers College in Maryville or any of the other state schools or colleges. This examination will no longer be required of the graduates. They will be additted to the colleges of the state without examinations.

Mr. Baker probably placed the school on the approved list because of the improvements that have been made at Quitman during the past year. The state inspector recently made a visit to the school and noted the improvements.

During the past year $1,800 have been spent on improvements. More than $300 of this amount was spent on the laboratory equipment in agriculture and physicial geography. New seats have been provided for the study hall and some of the recitation rooms, new floors have been put in, window shades have been hung and new books have been added to the library.

Thomas F. Merrigan, postmaster at Conception Junction, was in Maryville today on business.

Mr. Brink says, however, that there is no rough weather in sight so far as he knows. The forecast for today says warmer tomorrow.

V. F. W. TO PRESENT PLAY APRIL 19-20

"CLARENCE" TO BE PLAYED AT EMPIRE THEATER

TO USE LOCAL TALENT

Production Is By Booth Tarkington And Said to Be a Good One

The Seth Ray David Post Veterans of Foreign Wars, will present April 19-20 at the Empire Treater "Clarence," said to be one of Broadway's most successful comedies. The play was written by Booth Tarkington, one of America's foremost playwrights.

"Clarence" is said to be a play of rare delight, and one of the most joyous entertainments now visible. It is a story about a returned soldier.

Clarence has no medals, no shoulder bars, no great accomplishments One of the five million, he served where he was sent, though it was no farther than Texas. As an entomologist he found, on this side of the ocean, no field for his specialty in the great war. So they set him to driving mules. Now reduced to civil life and seeking a job, he finds a position in the home of one-wheeler a wealthy Englewood man with a family. And because he has been in the army, he becomes guide, philosopher, and friend to the members of the same agitated and distracted family group. Clarence's position is an anomalous one. He mends the bathroom plumbing, he tunes the piano, he types, he plays the saxaphone And around him revolves such a group of characters as only Booth Tarkington could offer. It is a real American comedy, and the audience ripples with appreciative and delighted laughter. The Veterans of Foreign Wars have selected this play in order to give the people of the community a real production and will spare no expense on the play, they say.

The royalty on this presentation is very large, and it will take at least eight weeks to produce it.

The script is expected to arrive in Maryville the latter part of the week and the best talent available will be used for the cast.

COLLEGE DEBATING TEAM CHOSEN THIS MORNING

Professor Harry A. Miller Says Speakers Made Good Showing In Preliminary

John Querry and Fred Kurtz were chosen this morning to represent the State Teachers College in the debate with the normal school of Pittsburg, Kan., in an elimination debate at the College. Virgil Adkinson was chosen as an alternate. The debate will be held here March 27.

Harry A. Miller, professor of public speaking at the College, says that the debaters did exceptionally well and that it is his opinion that the team has a good chance to win from the "Sunflowers." Debating has been given at the College one hour a week and it is said that some good talent has been discovered in the College.

Last year Maryville won from Missouri Wesleyan College of Cameron in a debate and Mr. Miller, who selected Saturday night the Missouri Wesleyan team for this year, says that he feels sure that the Maryville team could defeat the Wesleyans again this year.

Mr. Miller says that he has chances to pit the Maryville team against several teams in the state but that owing to the rush of work at the College it will not be possible to stage more than the one debate this year.

Marines Resume Enlistments

Washington, D. C., Feb. 13—The Marine Corps has again opened its ranks to re-enlistments from the army and navy and also to the acceptance of men who have had no prior military service. In recent months enlistments in the Marine Corps were restricted exclusively to former marines although men with excellent records in the sister services have been applying at the recruiting offices for the honor of "doing a hitch" with the leathernecks.

POPE PIUS XI ASSUMES HIS DUTIES AS PONTIFF

Pope Is Crowned Sunday Amid Scenes of Pomp and Enthusiasm in Basilica at St. Peter's.

Rome, Feb. 13.—Pope Pius XI today formally assumed his duties as supreme pontiff.

The Pope promised that a Pope will never again be elected without participation of the American Cardinals in the conclave, Cardinals O'Connell revealed.

Pius XI was crowned pope in the basilica of St. Peter's Sunday amid scene of pomp and ceremony and in the presence of dignitaries of the church, the diplomatic representatives of foreign countries, members of the Roman aristocracy and a vast assemblage. The ancient custom was carried out with impressive ceremonies. Pius XI now occupies the throne of the first pope reported crown, Leo III, who reigned from 795 to 816.

IDEALS ARE SHAPED BY FRIENDSHIPS

COOPER STRESSED RELATIONS IN SERMON

NEED CAREFUL SELECTION

Real Friends Bring Out the Best There Is In Us—Better Than Health Or Wealth

The Rev. J. A. Cooper in his sermon on "The Power of Friendship" at the First Baptist Church last night stressed friendship as being one of the most important factors in shaping the lives of young people of the country.

"In the shaping of those ideals which have so much to do with the formation of character friends have a most vital place," said Mr. Cooper. "Without friends a man can hardly become great; with the right sort of friend or friends man is inspired to his finest efforts. If a man have two or three real friends he is rich; if he have only one, life is well worth living. Destiny hangs more upon true friendships than upon wealth or health.

"With these things true the proper and wise choice of friends becomes a great responsibility. And yet some folks give more thought to the selection of their clothes than to the selection of their friends. It is a responsibility that may not be dodged or transferred; others may help me choose my acquaintances, but I must select my own friends. In the choice of these friendships character must be kept in mind as essential; none should be allowed in the holy of holies of our lives who are without goodness; to have close contact with evil is to run the dangerous risk of taint.

"With this quality of real worth there must be sympathy in the matter of ideals. People may like opposites in the matters of temperament, disposition and appearances, but there can be no going along together to high places of achievement for folks who are fundamentally disagreed.

"We should bear always in mind that we are to be friendly with all but to expect real friendships with few. When Sam Walter Foss wrote his poem about being a "Friend to Man" he had in mind "friendliness" not "friendship." The circle of my acquaintance should be as wide and its influence as great as possible, but I must remember that the real permanent impressions which I shall make and receive will be in terms of that close fellowship which we call friendship.

"I should expect from my friends loyalty, sincerity, their very best; and what I expect from them I must stand ready to give them. The best of me is for them; and the best of them is for me.

"We are real friends because we bring out the best in us. As young people we must choose wisely, cultivate carefully, sometimes remove conscientiously those friends who will help us or hinder us, as the case may be, to those ideals upon which usefulness and service may depend. Discretion in this matter of friendship will help to solve many of the problems of our young people, through direction of their lives to those finer choices which make the life what it ought to be."

Miss Zora Swaney and Miss Betty Livingston spent the week end at the homes of their parents near Pickering.

GROSS FAILS TO APPEAR IN COURT

BOND FOR $1,000 WAS ORDERED FORFEITED

TEN OTHER GROSS CASES

Atchison County Man Was Last Seen at Rock Port Friday—Willis Reese to Be Tried Tomorrow.

Charles Gross of Atchison County who is charged with grand larceny failed to appear in circuit court this morning when his case was called and Judge L. B. Wood of Princeton ordered that his bond of $1,000 signed by Gross' father, R. L. Gross as surety, be forfeited and that a capias be issued for the defendant.

Gross has ten other charges against him, two of them being scheduled for trial at the Worth County circuit court term beginning next Monday; four at Rock Port beginning on March 6; and four at Albany beginning on March 20. His bonds in these cases totaled $8,700.

This is the second time within the past few days that the defendant has failed to appear when his case was called in court. Lee Gowdy of Atchison county who was also charged with grand larceny was not present in circuit court last Wednesday afternoon after a jury had been chosen and the case was ready for trial. His bond for $1,000 was ordered forfeited.

It is said that Gross was last seen in Rock Port about 5:30 o'clock last Friday morning. It was also rumored that Billy Gowdy of Atchison County, who is a brother of Lee Gowdy, stated that he took Gross to Villisca, Ia., in an auto last Friday. Another statement was made that Gross and his father have recently transferred some of their property in Atchison County. It has been claimed that Gross is the leader of the alleged gang of thieves who have been operating in Atchison County.

Both the Gross and Gowdy cases were sent here on a change of venue from Atchison County. There has been several continuances in the Gross case and finally the defense took a change of venue from Judge Dawson, because of his alleged bias and prejudice in the case. Judge Wood was called in. Judge Wood arrived in Maryville last evening and after Gross failed to appear in court this morning and his bond ordered forfeited, Judge Wood left for his home on the morning Wabash this morning.

The only other Atchison County case sent here is that against Earl Fox who is now confined in the Atchison County jail. His case has been continued to the April term of circuit court.

The petit jurors were excused by Judge Dawson until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The case against Willis Reese on a charge of bogus check is scheduled for trial then.

For Wednesday, the cases of the State against Harry Spencer of a charge of rape, and against Grover Hatcher and Clyde Horn on charge of possession and transportation of liquor are scheduled for trial.

The case of the State against Hewitt McCleave on a charge of grand larceny scheduled for Wednesday will be continued on account of the sickness of McCleave's attorney, William G. Sawyers.

NO FLU IN MARYVILLE

St. Joseph Is Also Free From the Disease

It was said this afternoon at the office of Dr. L. E. Dean, city physician, that no cases of influenza have been reported to the city health department here. The disease is prevalent in many parts of the country, although it seems to be in a much lighter form than that which swept over the nation in the fall of 1918 and again early in 1920.

The St. Joseph papers said yesterday that there were no cases of the disease in St. Joseph, according to the weekly report of the city health department.

COUNTY FUNDS IN BAD SHAPE

NEARLY ALL COUNTY MONEY WILL BE EXHAUSTED SOON.

MANY WARRANTS OUT

Outstanding Bridge Warrants Totaled $76,872—No Extensive Program This Year.

The financial condition of the county funds as revealed by the semi-annual settlement of County Treasurer Edith Glenn with the county court is about as bad as it was this time a year ago.

The bridge fund has a balance of $3,368.96 on hand February 1. Bridge warrants amounting to $45,887.65 were paid. There are still outstanding bridge warrants amounting to $76,872.10.

The salary fund had a balance of $4,998.56.

The pauper fund was $12,394.78 to the good with $61.50 old warrants still out.

The contingent fund had a balance of $4,448.18, with $340.59 in old warrants still out.

The jury fund balance was $1,916.53 with $238.85 in old warrants still out.

It is estimated that 75 per cent of the county taxes have been paid into the county treasurer office by the various township collectors.

The outstanding warrants of the bridge fund are about $10,000 less than it were a year ago this time. Judge E. T. Bailey, presiding judge of the county court, said today he was expecting the outstanding warrants to be cut down considerable this year. The court has agreed to build several bridges the coming spring but no extensive bridge program is contemplated at this time.

The salary fund is expected to be exhausted within the next month or two and after that time protested warrants will have to be issued.

The pauper fund is expected to last during the entire year.

The contingent fund will be exhausted within the next month or so.

The jury fund is practically exhausted at the present time when the expenses of the constitutional election which were held January 31 are paid. It is estimated this election cost the taxpayers about $2,000. There are two more elections to be held this year, the primary election in August and the general election in November. Both of these elections will be expensive, especially the general election in November.

ULSTER FRONTIER SITUATION TENSE

ULSTERITES AND REPUBLICANS PREPARING FOR BATTLE

ARE DIGGING TRENCHES

English Government Indisposed to Patrol Unless Asked to By Belfast And Dublin

London, Feb. 13—A tense situation is reported among the Ulster frontier. The Ulsterites and Republicans confronting each other are prepared for a battle.

The Daily News says the Ulster premier, Sir James Craig proposed the British troops patrol the boundary.

It was officially announced that four battalion originally ordered to evacuate Ireland has been ordered to Belfast. Trenches have been dug.

Belfast, Feb. 13.—Three persons were killed overnight by shooting, several wounded and much looting.

The Ulsterites seized by the Sinn Feiners in the county Fermanagh were reported taken South to County Cavan, the southern most County of Ulster and bordering on the free state.

London, Feb. 13—Two persons were killed and several wounded in a fresh Belfast disorder this morning, says a Central News Dispatch from Belfast.

The total dead for the past twenty-four hours are now four men and one woman.

The disturbances started throughout Ulster when they saw the mills in the Ballina district burned.

The orders for the British troops to withdraw from Cork have been cancelled, says a Cork dispatch. The English government is indisposed to patrol the Ulster border without a request from both Belfast and Dublin governments.

CITY WATER DOES NOT TASTE RIGHT TODAY

Mayor Robinson Thinks That Straw-Stack May Have Been Dumped Into River

Many people in Maryville today notice that the city water is "off color" as to taste. Mayor F. R. Robinson went this morning to the waterworks plant but was unable to determine just what the trouble is. He had more chemicals applied to rid the water of the taste but said that he was not sure that it would be possible to remove it all if the water supply continues as it now is.

The mayor is going this afternoon to the river and follow up the course to see if something has been thrown into the water which is causing the bad taste. He said that he thought it probable that someone had thrown a strawstack into the river. This happened under the administration of W. O. Garrett and it was necessary to have the straw removed.

Decaying vegatable matter in the water would cause it to be polluted for a distance of several miles but Mayor Robinson said that he believed if it were straw in the water that it is within four miles of the pumping station.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY

THE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.

Chairman Fess of the Republican Congressional Committee, discussing the Democratic prediction that the G. O. P. would lose control of the house at the November elections, admits that his party will sustain some losses, and adds:

The Democrats will try to blame the industrial depression on the administration, he said, and will argue that our failure to enter the League of Nations brought about conditions in Europe which reached us. We hope they make that the issue. It will be an easy matter to show that there were conditions no legislation would have helped.

This is as ingenuous as amusing. Chairman Fess has apparently forgotten the cry of "back to normaley" used by the Republicans in the last campaign a campaign in which the G. O. P. orators did their utmost to make it appear that Wilson and the Democratic administration were reponsible for the high prices prevailing at the time, the unsettled condition of business and the depressed state of foreign trade relations. It was all right, according to Fess, unfairly to charge the Democrats with conditions that were the inevitable results of war, but it is all wrong to blame the Republicans for similar conditions from a similar cause.

The really intelligent voter realizes now, as he realized two years ago, that the depression following the war was the normal reaction from a period of industrial hysteria and inflation, but this fall he may wax inquisitive as to the amount of normaley the country has been brought back to under Republican auspices. He may ask: Do millions of men out of work, thousands of factories shut, and an almost abandoned foreign trade indicate a superiority of Republican leadership over the Democratic variety? It may also occur to him that the Wilson administration was confronted with problems much more complex than have confronted Mr. Harding and, looking back, he may come to the conclusion that they were handled better then than they were in the past two years.

Less thoughtful voters will ask this: Where is this normaley I voted for in November, 1920? And it will be up to Mr. Fess and his trained troupe of spellbinders to find and answer free from ands, buts and ifs, if they expect to hold the power they now have in Washington.—St. Louis Star.

There is more than enough
Joy in this old world to
Go round if we will only
Keep the corners of our mouth up.

Have you bought the valentine for her yet?

The post office grouch remarked to us the other day that it may be foolish to count your chickens before they are hatched but it gives you a lot of fun anyway.

In spite of the fact that flappers by the score wore goloshes this winter the average man did not have nerve enough to go back to the old fashioned velvet ear tabs.

All you need to do is tell most any man that he works too hard, to make a life long friend of him.

A good way for a girl to get lily white hands is to soak them in dishwater three times a day.

Many people have taken to eating yeast for "what ails you" grocers tell us. Little bottles of yeast tablets are displayed. Local doctors do not take much stock in the fad.

Uncle Abner, the philosopher, says the man who sticks is the fellow who seldom gets stuck.

A certain young woman just out of school got her first job in a butcher shop office. The other day a woman telephoned for some sweetbreads. "You have the wrong place" the girl said, "you want to call the bakery and not the meat market."

The more attractive the nurse the longer it usually takes a man to recover, one of our medic friends informs us.

The court house cynic says, one of the best suggestions he knows to make to some public officials in the good of the general public is "why don't you resign?"

A woman had an accident while driving the car down town the other day and called her husband from the garage to tell him about it. "All the damage was just a little paint knocked off," she told him. "Off the car?" he asked.

One of the things we can't understand is, why motion pictures are referred to as the silent drama when most every body in the audience reads the title to his neighbor out loud.

We wonder if the average Maryville flapper would be any more popular if she left a little more to the imagination.

A Maryville man told us he never knows what to do with his weak end. We suggest that he keep his hat on it.

Louise, the stenographer, says when some people are polite she wonders what favor they are going to ask.

One of the persons who gets on the nerves is the fellow who keeps saying "Is that so?" when you are talking to him.

WILSON FOUNDATION ONE THIRD RAISED

Twenty-eight States Subscribe $350,000 —Several States Are Near Their Quota.

New York, Feb. 13.—The total of contributions to date in the nation-wide effort to raise a fund of $1,000,000 or more for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation has reached $350,000, it was announced here today by Hamilton Holt, executive director. This is more than one third of the minimum goal of the fund which is to endow the Wilson Awards for public service.

It was announced that two states have completed over two-thirds of their quotas, while seven others have passed the half-way mark, no state has yet reached its quota, though these nine are all striving for supremacy, Mr. Holt said. He named Oklahoma, the District of Columbia, Minnesota, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Connecticut, New Jersey and Oregon, as those nearest the attainment of their proportion of the fund.

"The greatest step in the past week toward the goal", said Mr. Holt, "was accomplished by Robert W. Woolley, of Washington, former member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, chairman for the Foundation in the District of Columbia. In spite of the curtailment of work there following the theater disaster, that district has increased the proportion of its quota raised by 10 per cent."

From Maryland this afternoon came a report of the oversubscription of the Foundation quotas in two counties, Frederick and Allegheny counties, both strongly Republican, have passed the mark and are still at work. The Maryland state legislature was addressed yesterday by Mrs. Gertrude Breslau Fuller on the plan to pay a tribute to Mr. Wilson.

West Virginia reported that Mason and Gilmer counties had passed their allotment and were "still going."

Among the subscriptions received today was one from an old Confederate veteran who wrote from Texas:

"I am lying in bed away from home with a stroke of paralysis, I am not in touch with much of this world's goods but I can express my feeling for Mr. Wilson. The voice of the mob that hissed him down will pass away, but Mr. Wilson's name will go ringing down the ages."

Many reports of intensive personal work done for the Foundation by former government officials have come from all parts of the country, Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War under President Wilson, opened his offices to the public for one of the days of the campaign and saw all supporters of the Foundation personally.

Winter Series
ELKS CLUB
Tuesday Night

All Elks and their families are cordially invited.

On 54th Anniversary of Birth of Elks Lodge, 1400 Lodges, 818,000 members

The dawn of February 16, 1922 marks an anniversary of keen interest to nearly 1,000,000 American men.

Fifty-four years ago—on February 18, 1868—a little group of fourteen men sat in a stuffy room in New York City. Twice they voted on a matter they had been debating for weeks. On the second ballot, the now almost-forgotten fraternal order of the "Jolly Corks" was disbanded. And the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was born.

The first membership report in the archives of the Elks is dated December 27, 1868. New York Lodge No. 1, the Mother Lodge of the Order, was then its only lodge. There were 76 members on the rolls.

The fifty-fourth anniversary of the Order's birth shows a membership of more than 818,000 Elks in more than 1,400 lodges that dot the United States of America. At Anchorage, Alaska, the farthest north Elk lodge stands amid almost polar ice and snow. Elk lodges rise at Brownsville, Texas, and Key West, Florida—farthest southern points of the continental United States. Our Canal Zone has its lodge at Balboa Heights. Our island possessions are starred with Elk lodges at Manila in the Philippines, at Honolulu and Hilo in Hawaii at Guam, and at San Juan in Porto Rico. And the Elks of America are working to initiate their millionth member by July, 1922, when the Grand Lodge meets at Atlantic City.

The founder of this organization that is today America's greatest fraternal order? He was a strolling English actor! He never lived to know how well he and his little group of brother-actors had builded.

His body rests today in Mount Hope Cemetery, Boston, Massachusetts, beneath a great granite boulder bearing a bronze plate with the inscription:

"Charles Algernon Sidney Vivian. Founder of the Order of Elks. Died March 20, 1880. Aged 34 years. A lover of his kind, who founded a great Order and in so doing wrought much good."

Only one charter member of Elkdom still survives. He is "Joe" Norcross of New York.

The "Jolly Corks," actor-folk all, met in those days of the '60's in cafes and bar-rooms of New York's theatrical district.

Then they "hired a hall" and formed their fraternal order. It was nearly named the "Buffaloes," after the "Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes" of England to which Vivian, the ruling Cork, belonged. The vote stood seven to seven, dead-locked on "Buffaloes" and "Elks."

Only a handful recall the name of W. L. Bowron of New York, today. Yet it is to him that the "Elks" owe their name. On the second ballot he switched his vote from "Buffalo" to "Elk". Vivian, in the chair, though an ardent advocate of "Buffaloes," ratified the majority of one, and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was born.

One other circumstance, little known, paved the way for the name of "Elks". The committee charged with selecting a name was to meet at Broadway and Ann Street, New York. Some were tardy. Others, weary of waiting strolled into Barnum's Museum on that corner, and wandered through the famous animal collection.

"Bears" was suggested, but discarded as animals of few inviting traits, coarse, brutal and morose. "Beavers" were brought up as examples of industry, but cast aside as too destructive. "Foxes" suggested, were voted down as too cunning and crafty. A large moose-head attracted attention, but was at last turned down. Then an Elk's head, with graceful, spreading antlers, met with general approval and divided honors with "Buffaloes," which Vivian had advocated strongly, but which half the committee opposed because they did not wish to copy the name of an existing order.

From this trip to Barnum's Museum the committee went to the meeting where the name of "Elks" was chosen.

Since then the Order has grown by giant strides. It embraces American citizens from the humblest to Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, and life-member of Marion (Ohio) Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. Elks.

In 1922 Elkdom with gifts to charity already totaling more than $20,000,000, stepped out of the role of the purely fraternal organization into the rank of one of America's greatest humanitarian brotherhoods.

William W. Mountain, of Toledo, Ohio, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Order announced his policy:

"Make every Elk lodge the civic and humanitarian center of the community in which it makes its home."

In Chicago, by Lincoln Park, overlooking Lake Michigan, the Elks are building their $3,000,000 National Memorial to the 70,000 Elks who served the United States in the World War, and the more than 1,000 Elks who died in that service. The building will also house the Order's central executive organization, and the National Elks' Magazine.

Only men of 21 years or more American citizens, are eligible to membership.

"The faults of our brothers we write upon the sands—their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory," is Elkdom's motto.

The four cardinal principles of the Order are "Charity—Justice—Brotherly Love—Fidelity."

"I guess we built a little better than we knew," says old Joe" Norcross, only surviving charter member.

And from the Great Beyond, where those long-dead "Jolly Corks" look down upon this earth, thy probably agree with him.

GOLF RULES ANNOUNCED FOR COUNTRY CLUB

Courtesy the Leading Law For Golfers—Some Talk of Junior membership Arrangement

The playing rules for the Maryville Country Club have been announced. In a circular letter to each member of the club the board of directors made public the ground rules of the club which are as follows:

Courtesy should at all times predominate on the course.

It is an unwritten rule in golf, that absolute silence should prevail when a player is driving off the tee or putting on the green.

Right of way will be recognized at all times, except on Sundays and holidays, in the following order:

Twosome - Foursome - Threesome - Single.

On Sundays and holidays right of way shall be recognized in the following order:

Foursome - Twosome - Threesome - Single.

A Fivesome has no recognized standing on the course.

It a ball is lost, the losers should have a reasonable time in which to find it; but if they have the right of way, they may signal those following to pass through. The signal, once given, the losers should not resume play until those following have passed through and holed out.

Players should not play approach shots to the green until those in advance have holed out and left the green.

Children are not permitted on the course at any time on account of danger.

Caddies shall not be allowed on the course unless employed. While waiting for employment, caddies must remain at the club house until their services are required.

The caddie fees are as follows—15 cents for nine holes, singles; 25 cents for nine holes, doubles.

The rules are signed by A. Neil Sommerville, president of the board of directore.

There has been some talk of a junior membership to the Country Club, for students of the high school and State Teachers College, but nothing has been brought up at meetings of the club.

There are a number of boys and girls of the city who would like to play golf but who are unable to pay the yearly fees of $100.

What action the club will take is not known but it will likely be brought up at a near meeting.

A POLITICAL CODE FOR WOMEN.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond Says All Should Unite With Party.

New York, Feb. 11.—A political decalogue for women has been issued by Mrs. John Hays Hammond. Her cardinal principle, as expressed in her "second commandment," is that women should affiliate themselves with some party. Briefly her commandments are:

1. Women must not remain in old ruts, but must press forward.
2. Party government is necessary to awaken responsibility and get things done. A free lance gets nowhere.
3. We must make organization a means to an end, and never an end in itself.
4. We should unite with all forces of good government to get rid of the evil in the world and not waste our energy scrapping over non-essentials.
5. Let us try to make our party right, then support it wholeheartedly.
6. We should give more time to the study of political questions and in a little better historical background.
7. We should influence the men to take a deeper interest in political life.
8. It is our duty to organize classes among our ignorant citizens.
9. Our greatest need is for better leaders.
10. We must be good in our political and personal life if we would do good.

SAYS JAZZ AND BOOZE HAVE SAME EFFECT

I. I. Cammack, Superintendent of Kansas City Schools, Would Legislate Against Evil.

Kansas City, Feb. 13.—Jazz music has much the same effect on young people as a drink of liquor and should be legislated against, I. I. Cammack, superintendent of schools here, asserted in a speech before 1,000 public school teachers Saturday.

"The nation has been fighting booze a long time," Mr. Cammack said, "I am just wondering whether this jazz isn't going to have to be legislated against as well. It seems to me that when it gets into the blood of some of our young folks, and I might add older folks too, it serves them just about as a good stiff drink of booze would do.

"I think the time has come when teachers should assume a militant attitude toward all forms of this debasing and degrading music."

PIERCE SUGGESTED FOR NATIONAL JOB

WOULD MAKE MARYVILLE MAN ASSISTANT P. M. GENERAL.

TWO PLACES ARE OPEN

One Assistant Has Died and Another Slated to Take Place of William R. Hays.

The name of W. C. Pierce of this city has been prominently mentioned by his friends in Missouri for an assistant postmaster general either to succeed Hubert Work, who is now first assistant postmaster general and slated to become postmaster general to succeed Will R. Hays, or Edward Shaughnessey, the second assistant postmaster general who recently died from injuries received in the Knickerbocker theater disaster in Washington.

Mr. Pierce has flatly turned down all offers of political appointments which will take him away from Maryville. His name is also frequently mentioned as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate. But so far has refused to give it any consideration. Mr. Pierce was finally urged to accept appointment as a member of the board having charge of the eleemosynary institutions of the state at the request of Governor Hyde This work takes him away from Maryville only a few days.

It was said in Republican circles that a Missouri Republican will get one of the assistant postmaster generalships.

SHRINE CIRCUS OPENS IN ST. JOSEPH WEDNESDAY

Has Met With Success in Other Cities Many to Attend From Here

Those who visit the Shrine circus which opens at the Auditorium in St. Joseph Wednesday to continue for ten days, will be given a treat worth going a long way to see. The circus which will be presented has enjoyed wonderful success in other cities and capacity crowds have witnessed the performances. In San Francisco, where the circus was recently staged by the Shriners of that city, 35,000 persons attended on the closing night and thousands of others had to be turned away. Aerial, tumbling and bar, acts constitute the program. No show will be presented Sunday.

The doors of the Auditorium will be opened at 7 o'clock each evening, and the performance will begin an hour later. There will be dancing from 10:30 until midnight. The proceeds will go to a fund for the expenses of the St. Joseph Shrine delegates and uniform teams to the imperial council at San Francisco this year.

Several Shriners as well as others from Maryville will attend the circus.

QUITMAN HIGH SCHOOL PLACED ON APPROVED LIST

$1,800 Have Been Spent During the Past Year for Improvements—Has First-Class Rating.

The Quitman High School has been placed on the approved list of the first-class high schools of the state, according to a letter received Saturday by Superintendent W. A. Power from S. A. Baker, state superintendent of schools.

The Quitman school not being on the first-class approved list and the pupils graduated have had to take a special examination before being able to enter the State Teachers College in Maryville or any of the other state schools or colleges. This examination will no longer be required of the graduates. They will be addited to the colleges of the state without examinations.

Mr. Baker probably placed the school on the approved list because of the improvements that have been made at Quitman during the past year. The state inspector recently made a visit to the school and noted the improvements.

During the past year $1,800 have been spent on improvements. More than $300 of this amount was spent on the laboratory equipment in agriculture and physicial geography. New seats have been provided for the study hall and some of the recitation rooms, new floors have been put in, window shades have been hung and new books have been added to the library.

Thomas F. Merrigan, postmaster at Conception Junction, was in Maryville today on business.

"Clarence" is said to be a play of rare delight, and one of the most joyous entertainments now visible. It is a story about a returned soldier.

Clarence has no medals, no shoulder bars, no great accomplishments One of the five million, he served where he was sent, though it was no farther than Texas. As an entomologist he found, on this side of the ocean, no field for his specialty in the great war. So they set him to driving mules. Now reduced to civil life and seeking a job, he finds a position in the home of one-wheeler a wealthy Englewood man with a family. And because he has been in the army, he becomes guide, philosopher, and friend to the members of the same agitated and distracted family group. Clarence's position is an anomalous one. He mends the bathroom plumbing, he tunes the piano, he types, he plays the saxaphone And around him revolves such a group of characters as only Booth Tarkington could offer. it is a real American comedy, and the audience ripples with appreciative and delighted laughter. The Veterans of Foreign Wars have selected this play in order to give the people of the community a real production and will spare no expense on the play, they say.

The royalty on this presentation is very large, and it will take at least eight weeks to produce it.

The script is expected to arrive in Maryville the latter part of the week and the best talent available will be used for the cast.

COLLEGE DEBATING TEAM CHOSEN THIS MORNING

Professor Harry A. Miller Says Speakers Made Good Showing In Preliminary

John Querry and Fred Kurtz were chosen this morning to represent the State Teachers College in the debate with the normal school of Pittsburg, Kan., in an elimination debate at the College. Virgil Adkinson was chosen as an alternate. The debate will be held here March 27.

Harry A. Miller, professor of public speaking at the College, says that the debaters did exceptionally well and that it is his opinion that the team has a good chance to win from the "Sunflowers." Debating has been given at the College one hour a week and it is said that some good talent has been discovered in the College.

Last year Maryville won from Missouri Wesleyan College of Cameron in a debate and Mr. Miller, who selected Saturday night the Missouri Wesleyan team for this year, says that he feels sure that the Maryville team could defeat the Wesleyans again this year.

Mr. Miller says that he has chances to pit the Maryville team against several teams in the state but that owing to the rush of work at the College it will not be possible to stage more than the one debate this year.

Marines Resume Enlistments

Washington, D. C., Feb. 13—The Marine Corps has again opened its ranks to re-enlistments from the army and navy and also to the acceptance of men who have had no prior military service. In recent months enlistments in the Marine Corps were restricted exclusively to former marines although men with excellent records in the sister services have been applying at the recruiting offices for the honor of "doing a hitch" with the leathernecks.

POPE PIUS XI ASSUMES HIS DUTIES AS PONTIFF

Pope Is Crowned Sunday Amid Scenes of Pomp and Enthusiasm in Basilica at St. Peter's.

Rome, Feb. 13.—Pope Pius XI today formally assumed his duties as supreme pontiff.

The Pope promised that a Pope will never again be elected without participation of the American Cardinals in the conclave, Cardinals O'Connell revealed.

Pius XI was crowned pope in the basilica of St. Peter's Sunday amid scene of pomp and ceremony and in the presence of dignitaries of the church, the diplomatic representatives of foreign countries, members of the Roman aristocracy and a vast assemblage. The ancient custom was carried out with impressive ceremonies. Pius XI now occupies the throne of the first pope reported crown, Leo III, who reigned from 795 to 816.

IDEALS ARE SHAPED BY FRIENDSHIPS

COOPER STRESSED RELATIONS IN SERMON

NEED CAREFUL SELECTION

Real Friends Bring Out the Best There Is In Us—Better Than Health Or Wealth

The Rev. J. A. Cooper in his sermon on "The Power of Friendship" at the First Baptist Church last night stressed friendship as being one of the most important factors in shaping the lives of young people of the country.

"In the shaping of those ideals which have so much to do with the formation of character friends have a most vital place," said Mr. Cooper. "Without friends a man can hardly become great; with the right sort of friend or friends man is inspired to his finest efforts. If a man have two or three real friends he is rich; if he have only one, life is well worth living. Destiny hangs more upon true friendships than upon wealth or health.

"With these things true the proper and wise choice of friends becomes a great responsibility. And yet some folks give more thought to the selection of their clothes than to the selection of their friends. It is a responsibility that may not be dodged or transferred; others may help me choose my acquaintances, but I must select my own friends. In the choice of these friendships character must be kept in mind as essential; none should be allowed in the holy of holies of our lives who are without goodness; to have close contact with evil is to run the dangerous risk of taint.

"With this quality of real worth there must be sympathy in the matter of ideals. People may like opposites in the matters of temperament, disposition and appearances, but there can be no going along together, to high places of achievement for folks who are fundamentally disagreed.

"We should bear always in mind that we are to be friendly with all but to expect real friendships with few. When Sam Walter Foss wrote his poem about being a "Friend to Man" he had in mind "friendliness" not "friendship." The circle of my acquaintance should be as wide and its influence as great as possible, but I must remember that the real permanent impressions which I shall make and receive will be in terms of that close fellowship which we call friendship.

"I should expect from my friends loyalty, sincerity, their very best; and what I expect from them I must stand ready to give them. The best of me is for them; and the best of them is for me.

"We are real friends because we bring out the best in us. As young people we must choose wisely, cultivate carefully, sometimes remove conscientiously those friends who will help us or hinder us, as the case may be, to those ideals upon which usefulness and service may depend. Discretion in this matter of friendship will help to solve many of the problems of our young people, through direction of their lives to those finer choices which make the life what it ought to be."

Miss Zora Swaney and Miss Betty Livingston spent the week end at the homes of their parents near Pickering.

GROSS FAILS TO APPEAR IN COURT

BOND FOR $1,000 WAS ORDERED FORFEITED

TEN OTHER GROSS CASES

Atchison County Man Was Last Seen at Rock Port Friday—Willis Reese to Be Tried Tomorrow.

Charles Gross of Atchison County who is charged with grand larceny failed to appear in circuit court this morning when his case was called and Judge L. B. Wood of Princeton ordered that his bond of $1,000 signed by Gross' father, R. L. Gross as surety, be forfeited and that a capias be issued for the defendant.

Gross has ten other charges against him, two of them being scheduled for trial at the Worth County circuit court term beginning next Monday; four at Rock Port beginning on March 6; and four at Albany beginning on March 20. His bonds in these cases totaled $8,700.

This is the second time within the past few days that the defendant has failed to appear when his case was called in court. Lee Gowdy of Atchison county who was also charged with grand larceny was not present in circuit court last Wednesday afternoon after a jury had been chosen and the case was ready for trial. His bond for $1,000 was ordered forfeited.

It is said that Gross was last seen in Rock Port about 5:30 o'clock last Friday morning. It was also rumored that Billy Gowdy of Atchison County, who is a brother of Lee Gowdy, stated that he took Gross to Villisca, Ia., in an auto last Friday. Another statement was made that Gross and his father have recently transferred some of their property in Atchison County. It has been claimed that Gross is the leader of the alleged gang of thieves who have been operating in Atchison County.

Both the Gross and Gowdy cases were sent here on a change of venue from Atchison County. There has been several continuances in the Gross case and finally the defense took a change of venue from Judge Dawson, because of his alleged bias and prejudice in the case. Judge Wood was called in. Judge Wood arrived in Maryville last evening and after Gross failed to appear in court this morning and his bond ordered forfeited, Judge Wood left for his home on the morning Wabash this morning.

The only other Atchison County case sent here is that against Earl Fox who is now confined in the Atchison County jail. His case has been continued to the April term of circuit court.

The petit jurors were excused by Judge Dawson until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The case against Willis Reese on a charge of bogus check is scheduled for trial then.

For Wednesday, the cases of the State against Harry Spencer of a charge of rape, and against Grover Hatcher and Clyde Horn on charge of possession and transportation of liquor are scheduled for trial.

The case of the State against Hewitt McCleave on a charge of grand larceny scheduled for Wednesday will be continued on account of the sickness of McCleave's attorney, William G. Sawyers.

NO FLU IN MARYVILLE

St. Joseph Is Also Free From the Disease

It was said this afternoon at the office of Dr. L. E. Dean, city physician, that no cases of influenza have been reported to the city health department here. The disease is prevalent in many parts of the country, although it seems to be in a much lighter form than that which swept over the nation in the fall of 1918 and again early in 1920.

The St. Joseph papers said yesterday that there were no cases of the disease in St. Joseph, according to the weekly report of the city health department.

COUNTY FUNDS IN BAD SHAPE

NEARLY ALL COUNTY MONEY WILL BE EXHAUSTED SOON.

MANY WARRANTS OUT

Outstanding Bridge Warrants Totaled $76,872—No Extensive Program This Year.

The financial condition of the county funds as revealed by the semi-annual settlement of County Treasurer Edith Glenn with the county court is about as bad as it was this time a year ago.

The bridge fund has a balance of $3,368.96 on hand February 1. Bridge warrants amounting to $45,887.65 were paid. There are still outstanding bridge warrants amounting to $76,872.10.

The salary fund had a balance of $4,998.56.

The pauper fund was $12,394.78 to the good with $61.50 old warrants still out.

The contingent fund had a balance of $4,448.18, with $340.59 in old warrants still out.

The jury fund balance was $1,916.53 with $238.85 in old warrants still out.

It is estimated that 75 per cent of the county taxes have been paid into the county treasurer office by the various township collectors.

The outstanding warrants of the bridge fund are about $10,000 less than it were a year ago this time. Judge E. T. Bailey, presiding judge of the county court, said today he was expecting the outstanding warrants to be cut down considerable this year. The court has agreed to build several bridges the coming spring but no extensive bridge program is contemplated at this time.

The salary fund is expected to be exhausted within the next month or two and after that time protested warrants will have to be issued.

The pauper fund is expected to last during the entire year.

The contingent fund will be exhausted within the next month or so.

The jury fund is practically exhausted at the present time when the expenses of the constitutional election which were held January 31 are paid. It is estimated this election cost the taxpayers about $2,000. There are two more elections to be held this year, the primary election in August and the general election in November. Both of these elections will be expensive, especially the general election in November.

ULSTER FRONTIER SITUATION TENSE

ULSTERITES AND REPUBLICANS PREPARING FOR BATTLE

ARE DIGGING TRENCHES

English Government Indisposed to Patrol Unless Asked to By Belfast And Dublin

London, Feb. 13—A tense situation is reported among the Ulster frontier. The Ulsterites and Republicans confronting each other are prepared for a battle.

The Daily News says the Ulster premier, Sir James Craig proposed the British troops patrol the boundary.

It was officially announced that four battalion originally ordered to evacuate Ireland has been ordered to Belfast. Trenches have been dug.

Belfast, Feb. 13.—Three persons were killed overnight by shooting, several wounded and much looting.

The Ulsterites seized by the Sinn Feiners in the county Fermanagh were reported taken South to County Cavan, the southern most County of Ulster and bordering on the free state.

London, Feb. 13—Two persons were killed and several wounded in a fresh Belfast disorder this morning, says a Central News Dispatch from Belfast.

The total dead for the past twenty-four hours are now four men and one woman.

The disturbances started throughout Ulster when they saw the mills in the Ballina district burned.

The orders for the British troops to withdraw from Cork have been cancelled, says a Cork dispatch. The English government is indisposed to patrol the Ulster border without a request from both Belfast and Dublin governments.

CITY WATER DOES NOT TASTE RIGHT TODAY

Mayor Robinson Thinks That Straw-Stack May Have Been Dumped Into River

Many people in Maryville today notice that the city water is "off color" as to taste. Mayor F. R. Robinson went this morning to the waterworks plant but was unable to determine just what the trouble is. He had more chemicals applied to rid the water of the taste but said that he was not sure that it would be possible to remove it all if the water supply continues as it now is.

The mayor is going this afternoon to the river and follow up the course to see if something has been thrown into the water which is causing the bad taste. He said that he thought it probable that someone had thrown a strawstack into the river. This happened under the administration of W. O. Garrett and it was necessary to have the straw removed.

Decaying vegatable matter in the water would cause it to be polluted for a distance of several miles but Mayor Robinson said that he believed if it were straw in the water that it is within four miles of the pumping station.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY

THE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.

Chairman Fess of the Republican Congressional Committee, discussing the Democratic prediction that the G. O. P. would lose control of the house at the November elections, admits that his party will sustain some losses, and adds:

The Democrats will try to blame the industrial depression on the administration, he said, and will argue that our failure to enter the League of Nations brought about conditions in Europe which reached us. We hope they make that the issue. It will be an easy matter to show that there were conditions no legislation would have helped.

This is as ingenuous as amusing. Chairman Fess has apparently forgotten the cry of "back to normalcy" used by the Republicans in the last campaign a campaign in which the G. O. P. orators did their utmost to make it appear that Wilson and the Democratic administration were reponsible for the high prices prevailing at the time, the unsettled condition of business and the depressed state of foreign trade relations. It was all right, according to Fess, unfairly to charge the Democrats with conditions that were the inevitable results of war, but it is all wrong to blame the Republicans for similar conditions from a similar cause.

The really intelligent voter realizes now, as he realized two years ago, that the depression following the war was the normal reaction from a period of industrial hysteria and inflation, but this fall he may wax inquisitive as to the amount of normalcy the country has been brought back to under Republican auspices. He may ask: Do millions of men out of work, thousands of factories shut, and an almost abandoned foreign trade indicate a superiority of Republican leadership over the Democratic variety? It may also occur to him that the Wilson administration was confronted with problems much more complex than have confronted Mr. Harding and, looking back, he may come to the conclusion that they were handled better then than they were in the past two years.

Less thoughtful voters will ask this: Where is this normalcy I voted for in November, 1920? And it will be up to Mr. Fess and his trained troupe of spellbinders to find and answer free from ands, buts and ifs, if they expect to hold the power they now have in Washington.—St. Louis Star.

In spite of the fact that flappers by the score wore goloshes this winter the average man did not have nerve enough to go back to the old fashioned velvet ear tabs.

All you need to do is tell most any man that he works too hard, to make a life long friend of him.

A good way for a girl to get lily white hands is to soak them in dishwater three times a day.

Many people have taken to eating yeast for "what ails you" grocers tell us. Little bottles of yeast tablets are displayed. Local doctors do not take much stock in the fad.

Uncle Abner, the philosopher, says the man who sticks is the fellow who seldom gets stuck.

A certain young woman just out of school got her first job in a butcher shop office. The other day a woman telephoned for some sweetbreads. "You have the wrong place" the girl said, "you want to call the bakery and not the meat market."

The more attractive the nurse the longer it usually takes a man to recover, one of our medic friends informs us.

A woman had an accident while driving the car down town the other day and called her husband from the garage to tell him about it. "All the damage was just a little paint knocked off," she told him. "Off the car?" he asked.

One of the things we can't understand is, why motion pictures are referred to as the silent drama when most every body in the audience reads the title to his neighbor out loud.

We wonder if the average Maryville flapper would be any more popular if she left a little more to the imagination.

WILSON FOUNDATION ONE THIRD RAISED

Twenty-eight States Subscribe $350.000 —Several States Are Near Their Quota.

New York, Feb. 13.—The total of contributions to date in the nation-wide effort to raise a fund of $1,000,000 or more for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation has reached $350,000, it was announced here today by Hamilton Holt, executive director. This is more than one third of the minimum goal of the fund which is to endow the Wilson Awards for public service.

It was announced that two states have completed over two-thirds of their quotas, while seven others have passed the half-way mark, no state has yet reached its quota, though these nine are all striving for supremacy, Mr. Holt said. He named Oklahoma, the District of Columbia, Minnesota, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Connecticut, New Jersey and Oregon, as those nearest the attainment of their proportion of the fund.

"The greatest step in the past week toward the goal", said Mr. Holt, "was accomplished by Robert W. Woolley, of Washington, former member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, chairman for the Foundation in the District of Columbia. In spite of the curtailment of work there following the theater disaster, that district has increased the proportion of its quota raised by 10 per cent."

From Maryland this afternoon came a report of the oversubscription of the Foundation quotas in two counties, Frederick and Allegheny counties, both strongly Republican, have passed the mark and are still at work. The Maryland state legislature was addressed yesterday by Mrs. Gertrude Breslau Fuller on the plan to pay a tribute to Mr. Wilson.

West Virginia reported that Mason and Gilmer counties had passed their allotment and were "still going."

Among the subscriptions received today was one from an old Confederate veteran who wrote from Texas:

"I am lying in bed away from home with a stroke of paralysis, I am not in touch with much of this world's goods but I can express my feeling for Mr. Wilson. The voice of the mob that hissed him down will pass away, but Mr. Wilson's name will go ringing down the ages."

Many reports of intensive personal work done for the Foundation by former government officials have come from all parts of the country, Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War under President Wilson, opened his offices to the public for one of the days of the campaign and saw all supporters of the Foundation personally.

THIRD DANCE of the
Winter Series
ELKS CLUB
Tuesday Night

All Elks and their families are cordially invited.

On 54th Anniversary of Birth of Elks Lodge, 1400 Lodges, 818,000 members

The dawn of February 16, 1922 marks an anniversary of keen interest to nearly 1,000,000 American men.

Fifty-four years ago—on February 18, 1868—a little group of fourteen men sat in a stuffy room in New York City. Twice they voted on a matter they had been debating for weeks. On the second ballot, the now almost-forgotten fraternal order of the "Jolly Corks" was disbanded. And the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was born.

The first membership report in the archives of the Elks is dated December 27, 1868. New York Lodge No. 1, the Mother Lodge of the Order, was then its only lodge. There were 76 members on the rolls.

The fifty-fourth anniversary of the Order's birth shows a membership of more than 818,000 Elks in more than 1,400 lodges that dot the United States of America. At Anchorage, Alaska, the farthest north Elk lodge stands amid almost polar ice and snow. Elk lodges rise at Brownsville, Texas, and Key West, Florida—farthest southern points of the continental United States. Our Canal Zone has its lodge at Balboa Heights. Our island possessions are starred with Elk lodges at Manila in the Philippines, at Honolulu and Hilo in Hawaii at Guam, and at San Juan in Porto Rico. And the Elks of America are working to initiate their millionth member by July, 1922, when the Grand Lodge meets at Atlantic City.

The founder of this organization that is today America's greatest fraternal order? He was a strolling English actor! He never lived to know how well he and his little group of brother-actors had builded.

His body rests today in Mount Hope Cemetery, Boston, Massachusetts, beneath a great granite boulder bearing a bronze plate with the inscription:

"Charles Algernon Sidney Vivian. Founder of the Order of Elks. Died March 20, 1880. Aged 34 years. A lover of his kind, who founded a great Order and in so doing wrought much good."

Only one charter member of Elkdom still survives. He is "Joe" Norcross of New York.

The "Jolly Corks," actor-folk all, met in those days of the '60's in cafes and bar-rooms of New York's theatrical district.

Then they "hired a hall" and formed their fraternal order. It was nearly named the "Buffaloes," after the "Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes" of England to which Vivian, the ruling Cork, belonged. The vote stood seven to seven, dead-locked on "Buffaloes" and "Elks."

Only a handful recall the name of W. L. Bowron of New York, today. Yet it is to him that the "Elks" owe their name. On the second ballot he switched his vote from "Buffalo" to "Elk". Vivian, in the chair, though an ardent advocate of "Buffaloes," ratified the majority of one, and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was born.

One other circumstance, little known, paved the way for the name of "Elks". The committee charged with selecting a name was to meet at Broadway and Ann Street, New York. Some were tardy. Others, weary of waiting strolled into Barnum's Museum on that corner, and wandered through the famous animal collection.

"Bears" was suggested, but discarded as animals of few inviting traits, coarse, brutal and morose. "Beavers" were brought up as examples of industry, but cast aside as too destructive. "Foxes" suggested, were voted down as too cunning and crafty. A large moose-head attracted attention, but was at last turned down. Then an Elk's head, with graceful, spreading antlers, met with general approval and divided honors with "Buffaloes," which Vivian had advocated strongly, but which half the committee opposed because they did not wish to copy the name of an existing order.

From this trip to Barnum's Museum the committee went to the meeting where the name of "Elks" was chosen.

Since then the Order has grown by giant strides. It embraces American citizens from the humblest to Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, and life-member of Marion (Ohio) Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. Elks.

In 1922 Elkdom with gifts to charity already totaling more than $20,000,000, stepped out of the role of the purely fraternal organization into the rank of one of America's greatest humanitarian brotherhoods.

William W. Mountain, of Toledo, Ohio, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Order announced his policy:

"Make every Elk lodge the civic and humanitarian center of the community in which it makes its home."

In Chicago, by Lincoln Park, overlooking Lake Michigan, the Elks are building their $3,000,000 National Memorial to the 70,000 Elks who served the United States in the World War, and the more than 1,000 Elks who died in that service. The building will also house the Order's central executive organization, and the National Elks' Magazine.

Only men of 21 years or more American citizens, are eligible to membership.

"The faults of our brothers we write upon the sands—their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory," is Elkdom's motto.

The four cardinal principles of the Order are "Charity—Justice—Brotherly Love—Fidelity."

"I guess we built a little better than we knew," says old Joe" Norcross, only surviving charter member.

And from the Great Beyond, where those long-dead "Jolly Corks" look down upon this earth, thy probably agree with him.

GOLF RULES ANNOUNCED FOR COUNTRY CLUB

Courtesy the Leading Law For Golfers—Some Talk of Junior membership Arrangement

The playing rules for the Maryville Country Club have been announced. In a circular letter to each member of the club the board of directors made public the ground rules of the club which are as follows:

Courtesy should at all times predominate on the course.

It is an unwritten rule in golf, that absolute silence should prevail when a player is driving off the tee or putting on the green.

Right of way will be recognized at all times, except on Sundays and holidays, in the following order:

Twosome - Foursome - Threesome - Single.

On Sundays and holidays right of way shall be recognized in the following order:

Foursome - Twosome - Threesome - Single.

A Fivesome has no recognized standing on the course.

If a ball is lost, the losers should have a reasonable time in which to find it; but if they have the right of way, they may signal those following to pass through. The signal, once given, the losers should not resume play until those following have passed through and holed out.

Players should not play approach shots to the green until those in advance have holed out and left the green.

Children are not permitted on the course at any time on account of danger.

Caddies shall not be allowed on the course unless employed. While waiting for employment, caddies must remain at the club house until their services are required.

The caddie fees are as follows—15 cents for nine holes, singles; 25 cents for nine holes, doubles.

The rules are signed by A. Nell Sommerville, president of the board of directore.

There has been some talk of a junior membership to the Country Club, for students of the high school and State Teachers College, but nothing has been brought up at meetings of the club.

There are a number of boys and girls of the city who would like to play golf but who are unable to pay the yearly fees of $100.

What action the club will take is not known but it will likely be brought up at a near meeting.

A POLITICAL CODE FOR WOMEN.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond Says All Should Unite With Party.

New York, Feb. 11.—A political decalogue for women has been issued by Mrs. John Hays Hammond. Her cardinal principle, as expressed in her "second commandment," is that women should affiliate themselves with some party. Briefly her commandments are:

1. Women must not remain in old ruts, but must press forward.
2. Party government is necessary to awaken responsibility and get things done. A free lance gets nowhere.
3. We must make organization a means to an end, and never an end in itself.
4. We should unite with all forces of good government to get rid of the evil in the world and not waste our energy scrapping over non-essentials.
5. Let us try to make our party right, then support it wholeheartedly.
6. We should give more time to the study of political questions and in a little better historical background.
7. We should influence the men to take a deeper interest in political life.
8. It is our duty to organize classes among our ignorant citizens.
9. Our greatest need is for better leaders.
10. We must be good in our political and personal life if we would do good.

SAYS JAZZ AND BOOZE HAVE SAME EFFECT

I. I. Cammack, Superintendent of Kansas City Schools, Would Legislate Against Evil.

Kansas City, Feb. 13.—Jazz music has much the same effect on young people as a drink of liquor and should be legislated against, I. I. Cammack, superintendent of schools here, asserted in a speech before 1,000 public school teachers Saturday.

"The nation has been fighting booze a long time," Mr. Cammack said, "I am just wondering whether this jazz isn't going to have to be legislated against as well. It seems to me that when it gets into the blood of some of our young folks, and I might add older folks too, it serves them just about as a good stiff drink of booze would do.

"I think the time has come when teachers should assume a militant attitude toward all forms of this debasing and degrading music."
